The Sixth Annual Law and Corpus Linguistics Conference Schedule

All times given in Mountain Standard Time

9:00-9:15 Welcome D. Gordon Smith, Dean of the J. Reuben Clark Law School

9:15-10:45 Panel 1 Theory and Methodology Moderated by Brett Hashimoto

Neal Goldfarb- Toward Partial Consensus as to the Relationship Between Corpus Linguistics and Ordinary Meaning

Ben Lee- Textual Questions and Sunstein's "Textualism and the Duck-Rabbit Illusion"

Jesse Egbert, Justice Tom Lee, and Zak Lutz- Refining Corpus-based Methods for Investigating Questions of Surplusage

10:50-11:50 Keynote Address

Tammy Gales will provide the keynote address. Dr. Gales is an Associate Professor of Linguistics at Hofstra University, and has made substantial contributions to this field—principally in statutory interpretation and forensic linguistics.

11:50- 1:00 Lunch

1:00-2:30 Panel 2 Application Moderated by James Heilpern

John K. Bush- Corpus Analysis of the Meaning of Direct Tax

Clark D. Cunningham and Ute Römer- Investigating the Original Public Meaning of "Misdemeanors" in the Impeachment Clause

Eric Jensen and James Lee- Corpus Linguistics Applications to International Law

2:30 – 4:00 Panel 3 Corpus Construction Moderated by Tom Lee

Margaret Wood and Jesse Egbert- Designing and Constructing Specialized Corpora of Statutory Language

Kyra Nelson- Constructing a Corpus of the Congressional Record

Brett Hashimoto, James Heilpern, and Tina Wilder- Legislative History as a Corpus

4:00-4:15 Closing remarks   Tom Lee